Lineage has agreed not to sell additional shares of OncoCyte common stock until January 1, 2020 or unless the OncoCyte common stock price is above $3.00.

"Our objective is to build Lineage into a premier cell therapy company. This latest transaction involving the sale of OncoCyte shares is part of a larger strategy to raise operating capital from time to time to support our three clinical-stage programs through sources other than Lineage common stock," stated Brian M. Culley, Chief Executive Officer. "We have no plans to conduct additional sales of OncoCyte in the near-term. We continue to have other funding mechanisms at our disposal via our remaining investments in AgeX Therapeutics, Inc. and Hadasit Bio-Holdings Ltd., as well as a $21.6 million promissory note due to us in August 2020 from Juvenescence Ltd. In parallel, we continue to assess other funding and strategic alliance opportunities which may be available through our existing or future potential partners. While it is imperative to support our internal programs, we remain one of OncoCyte's largest shareholders and are highly supportive of their short and long-term growth plans. We look forward to their continued progress toward becoming a comprehensive diagnostic content company serving the needs of lung cancer patients across disease stages."

The Special Equities Group, LLC a division of Bradley Woods & Co. Ltd. acted as exclusive placement agent with respect to part of this transaction.
