Item 8.01. Other Events

The purpose of this Current Report on Form 8-K is to amend and supplement the joint proxy statement/prospectus included in Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, file No. 333-229141 filed by BioTime, Inc. (“BioTime”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on January 14, 2019 (the “Registration Statement”), and included in the definitive proxy statement filed by Asterias Biotherapeutics, Inc. (“Asterias”) with the SEC on February 4, 2019 (the “Joint Proxy Statement”), relating to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated November 7, 2018 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Asterias, BioTime and Patrick Merger Sub, Inc. (“Merger Sub”). The Joint Proxy Statement was first mailed to the stockholders of Asterias and shareholders of BioTime on or about February 6, 2019.

On February 19, 2019, a putative class action lawsuit relating to the Merger Agreement was filed on behalf of Asterias stockholders in the Superior Court of the State of California in the County of Alameda (the “Superior Court”) against Asterias, the members of Asterias’ board of directors, BioTime, Merger Sub, Neal Bradsher, Broadwood Capital, Inc. and Broadwood Capital Partners, L.P. The lawsuit asserts claims for breach of fiduciary duty and aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, alleging that the consideration Asterias shareholders are to receive in the Merger is unfair, the merger is the product of an unfair process, and the Joint Proxy Statement omits certain allegedly material information. The complaint seeks, injunctive relief or rescissory damages and an award of plaintiffs’ expenses and attorneys’ fees. The defendants specifically deny all allegations in the litigation, including that any additional disclosure was or is required and intend to defend it vigorously. However, to moot the disclosure claims in the complaint, Asterias and BioTime make the following supplemental disclosures to the Joint Proxy Statement relating to the proposed merger, which supplemental disclosures are set forth below (the “Supplemental Disclosures”). Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURES

This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the Joint Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. The information contained herein is incorporated by reference into the Joint Proxy Statement. Defined terms used but not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Joint Proxy Statement, and all page references refer to pages of the Joint Proxy Statement.

Background of the Merger

The following disclosure is to be added after the last sentence in the fifth paragraph of page 47, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

Although the Asterias Special Committee requested that management identify a financial advisor, the Asterias Special Committee retained the full power to evaluate the financial advisor and whether to engage the financial advisor or to select an alternative advisor. Although Mr. Mulroy was a member on the board of directors of Asterias and BioTime, the Special Committee did not believe that Mr. Mulroy’s involvement as part of the transaction process would negatively impact the Special Committee’s ability to negotiate the best deal possible for Asterias stockholders because the Special Committee was mindful of Mr. Mulroy’s position on the BioTime board throughout the process and ultimately held the sole and complete authority to recommend a deal with BioTime or a third party, or to recommend an alternative strategic strategy, to the Asterias Board.

The following disclosure is to be added after the penultimate sentence in the last paragraph of page 49, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

Raymond James shared its belief with the Asterias Board that under then existing market conditions, it would be very difficult for Asterias to be able to raise adequate funds to continue operating as an independent company.

The following disclosure is to be added after the last sentence in the second paragraph of page 50, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

Under the counteroffer proposed by Asterias, there were no discussions with respect to whether any specific employee or executive of Asterias would be retained by BioTime following the completion of the merger, and this was never included as a condition to the merger in any discussion or draft of the Merger Agreement.

The following disclosure is to be added after the penultimate sentence in the fifth paragraph of page 50, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

The Asterias Special Committee required BioTime to agree to vote its Asterias shares in favor of the Merger because the Asterias Special Committee felt that it was in the Asterias stockholders’ best interest to seek deal certainty once the Merger Agreement was signed and announced and BioTime’s agreement to vote its shares increased deal certainty. The Asterias Special Committee felt that Asterias might not be able to continue as a going concern if an announced merger was not consummated. The Asterias Special Committee ultimately agreed not to require a price collar as a concession to obtain a higher premium and deal certainty.

The following disclosure is to be added after the last sentence in the second paragraph of page 52, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

The Asterias Special Committee did not engage a valuation expert to value the AgeX distribution. The Asterias Special Committee believed that cost and timing considerations outweighed potential benefits of seeking a valuation expert to value the AgeX distribution, and the Asterias Special Committee believed that the complications of negotiating a mechanism to adjust the exchange ratio based on an AgeX valuation would have resulted in substantial delay and deal risk.

The following disclosure is to be added after the second sentence in the third paragraph of page 52, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

In determining that the exchange ratio of 0.71 BioTime Common Shares for each share of Asterias Common Stock, which would result in an approximate 30% premium for Asterias stockholders, was the best offer that the Asterias Special Committee would get from BioTime, the Asterias Special Committee considered, among other things, that this exchange ratio was within the range discussed with Raymond James at recent meetings of the Asterias Special Committee.

The following disclosure is to be added after the last sentence in the last paragraph of page 52, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

Messrs. Mulroy and Kingsley recused themselves from the vote of the Asterias Board because they were also members of the BioTime board of directors.

The following disclosure is to be added after the first sentence in the fifth paragraph of page 53, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

The Special Committee requested that Mr. Mulroy prepare the “go-shop” list because Mr. Mulroy, as the Chief Executive Officer of Asterias, was most informed as to which third parties had prior contact with Asterias and which third parties might potentially be interested in a transaction with Asterias. Mr. Mulroy prepared the initial draft and discussed it with the Asterias management team; following such discussions the list was finalized based on the input from the Asterias management team.

The following disclosure is to be added after the only sentence in the second paragraph of page 54, under the header “Background of the Merger.”

In addition, during the “go-shop” period, no third party responded in any way that suggested that it would be interested in making an alternative proposal outside of the “go-shop” period. Most of the parties that were contacted failed to respond entirely and those that did respond indicated that they were not a position to pursue a proposal with Asterias during the “go-shop” period or thereafter.

The following disclosure is to be added after the last paragraph of page 75, under the header “Discounted Cash Flow Analysis of Asterias.”

The Discounted Cash Flow analysis assumes no terminal value consistent with industry convention, which reflects the expectation that generic or biosimilar products will capture most (if not all) market share once the regulatory exclusivity period has expired.

The following disclosure is to be added after the second paragraph of page 76, under the header “Discounted Cash Flow Analysis of BioTime.”

Raymond James estimated a range of equity values for BioTime based upon the present value of Asterias’ estimated unlevered free cash flows, defined as operating income less provisions for taxes plus tax shield from net operating losses carryforward, for fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 through December 31, 2028, in each case with risk adjustments as provided by Asterias and approved for Raymond James’ use by the Asterias Special Committee.

The Discounted Cash Flow analysis assumes no terminal value consistent with industry convention, which reflects the expectation that generic or biosimilar products will capture most (if not all) market share once the regulatory exclusivity period has expired.

The following disclosure is to be added after the last sentence in the first paragraph of page 78, under the header “Material Financial Analyses.”

During the two years preceding the date of Raymond James’s written opinion, Raymond James has not received any compensation from Neal Bradsher, Broadwood Capital, Inc., Broadwood Partners, L.P., OncoCyte, or AgeX for any engagement or services performed. There are no material relationships that existed during the two years prior to the date of the opinion or are mutually understood to be contemplated in which any compensation was received or is intended to be received as a result of the relationship between Raymond James, on one hand, and Neal Bradsher, Broadwood Capital, Inc., Broadwood Partners, L.P., OncoCyte, or AgeX, on the other hand.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Mr. Mulroy’s employment agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to Asterias’ Current Report on Form 8-K, filed May 23, 2017, and is incorporated herein by reference.

As previously disclosed in Asterias’ Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 8, 2018, Asterias entered into an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (each, an “Employment Agreement”) on November 7, 2018, with each of (i) Craig Halberstadt, Senior Vice President, Research & Product Development of Asterias, (ii) Edward Wirth, III, Chief Medical Officer of Asterias, and (iii) Ryan Chavez, Chief Financial Officer and General Counsel of Asterias. Each Employment Agreement provides that the Executive is entitled to specified severance compensation, bonus and other payments in the event Asterias or its successor in interest terminates the Executive’s employment without Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) within twelve months following a Change in Control (summarized below), or if the Executive resigns for Good Reason (summarized below) within twelve months following a Change in Control.

Under each Employment Agreement, Good Reason means, subject to specified notice periods, cure opportunities and other procedural requirements specified in the Employment Agreement: (A) a diminution in the Executive’s base salary; (B) a material change in geographic location at which the Executive must perform services (subject to specified exclusions for a change in Asterias’ office location); (C) any material failure of the successors to Asterias after a Change of Control to perform, or causing Asterias not to perform, Asterias’ obligations under the Employment Agreement; (D) any action or inaction of Asterias that constitutes a material breach of the terms of the Employment Agreement; or (E) any other material adverse change in the Executive’s duties, authorities, responsibilities, or reporting structure.

Under each Employment Agreement, Change of Control means: (A) subject to exclusions specified in the Employment Agreement, the acquisition of voting securities of Asterias by a person or group entitling the holder thereof to elect a majority of the directors of Asterias; (B) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Asterias; (C) a merger or consolidation of Asterias with or into another corporation or entity (irrespective of whether Asterias is the surviving corporation in such merger or consolidation) in which the stockholders of Asterias immediately before such merger or consolidation do not own, in substantially the same percentages, voting securities of the surviving corporation or entity (or the ultimate parent of the surviving corporation or entity) entitling them, in the aggregate, to elect a majority of the directors or persons holding similar powers; or (D) a change in the composition of the board occurring within a twelve month period, as a result of which the incumbent directors cease to constitute at least a majority of the board.

Under each Employment Agreement, Cause means: (A) the repeated failure to properly perform the Executive's job responsibilities after written receipt being notified of such failure to perform, as determined reasonably and in good faith by the board; (B) commission of any act of fraud, gross misconduct or dishonesty with respect to Asterias or any related company; (C) conviction of, or plea of guilty or "no contest" to, any felony, or a crime involving moral turpitude; (D) breach of any provision of the Employment Agreement or any provision of any proprietary information and inventions agreement with Asterias or any related company; (E) failure to follow the lawful directions of the board of directors of Asterias or any related company; (F) chronic alcohol or drug abuse; (G) obtaining, in connection with any transaction in which Asterias, any related company, or any of Asterias' affiliates is a party, a material undisclosed financial benefit for the Executive or for any member of the Executive's immediate family or for any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or trust in which the Executive or any member of the Executive's immediate family owns a material financial interest; or (H) harassing or discriminating against, or participating or assisting in the harassment of or discrimination against, any employee of Asterias (or a related company or an affiliate of Asterias) based upon gender, race, religion, ethnicity, or nationality.

Each Employment Agreement contains an agreement by Executive to keep confidential certain Confidential Information (as defined in the Employment Agreement) both during and after Executive's employment and provides that the employment relationship of the Executive with Asterias is at will and may be terminated by the Executive or by Asterias with or without cause at any time by notice given in writing.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Employment Agreements, which are filed as Exhibit 10.1, Exhibit 10.2, and Exhibit 10.3 to the Current Report filed on November 8, 2018, and are incorporated herein by reference.
